Notes from "DS. Biographical Encyclopedia"
Vol. I - by Andrew Jensen re:

George Q. Cannon

1st Coars. to Pres. John Taylor, Wilford
Woodruff & Lorenzo Snow.

Born in Liverpool England Jan. 11, 1827

Baptized June 18, 1840

Paired for America Sept. 18, 1842

George Cannon died, Aug. 19, 1844.

George Q. ordained elder by John Taylor, Feb. 9, 1845
(also 70 same day)

Arrived in Salt Lake Valley, Oct. 3, 1847.

Autumn 1849, sent to California under direction of Charles C. Rich.

Summer, 1850, with nine others he was sent to the Sandwich Islands (Hawaii)
They arrived in Honolulu, Dec. 12, 1850.

Note from a letter written by George Q. Cannon to a "Brother Sloan" on Dec. 9, 1861, from Liverpool, England, on stationery titled "Latter-Day Saints European Publishing and Emigration Office." (From folder in ms d. 4777, Geo. Q. Cannon papers 1827-1901). "My mother's father - John Quayle - died 6 May, 1831, aged 60. His wife, Ellinor Calkins, was the daughter of Sylvester Callister, and was born, I think Aug. 14, 1771. You will ~~note~~ perceive that both my grandmothers maiden names were Callister - Leonora, the wife of George Cannon (or Cannon), and Ellenor, the wife of John Guayle - they were Cousins.

Note: The above letter was evidently written to this Bro. Sloan who was doing some genealogical research for George Q. Cannon, and was in his own handwriting. The reason the letter is on hand is explained by the following closing lines of the letter "As I made several errors in this (letter) I have requested
Bro John Graham to copy it."
