

Roll Call

Davis Chipman (Pres. of Class)—A champion of woman's rights.

Jane Dickerson (Vice-Pres.)—A queenly girl and a hard worker.

Louis Singleton—Talks some, thinks much, does less.

Henry Johnson—Delights in breaking hearts.

Earl Barrett—Most industrious student in school????

Ross Buckwalter—Continues to expand—laterally.

Harry McElerry—Waiting patiently when seven women will take hold of one man and support him.

Roy Storrs—Wore himself out with school labor.

Roy Logsdon—A quiet, patriotic, unassuming student.

Hayden Holindrake (Class Ex. Comm.)—Dreamy. Smily.

Leon Miller—Resolves to get a college education. Stands up when interested.

Hugh Wing—Hobby for acting cute around the girls. Always on lead.

George Binch—Hap's baby doll. Never looks at girls.

Eli Searle—His picture is bound to appear in some future mathematics text.

Clifford Crooks—Wears a perpetual smile.

Dena Shafter (Class Ex. Com.)—"Intellectual" is the word.

Pearl Rowley—A lovable, good, steady girl who makes grades.

Merle Chipman—Quiet, practical and very sensible, for a girl.

Ruby Wootton (Secy.-Treas.)—Modesty first.

Cleo Sinclair (Editor)—Pretty to walk with, witty to talk with.

Alta Beck—Ready for a frolic. Has beautiful rosy cheeks.

Clara Hunter (Ex. Com.)—Brim full of wit.

Ida Booth—Will make a mark in literature, if she doesn't get married.

Velma Shelly—Sunshine personified.

Fern Armstrong—I will.

CAN YOU IMAGINE:

Henry—Sluffing a girl?	Roy—Not going to Lehi?
Clara—Prepared?	Dena—Talking?
Hugh—Not Studying?	Pearl—Slender?
Harry—Not Peeved?	Eli—Stewed?
Ida—Missing a dance?	Wayne—Being bashful?
Merle—In love?	Lillian—Early to Penmanship?
Jane—Walking fast?	Ross—Growing?
Norven—Without Vina?	George—Flirting?
Ruby's Laugh?	Hayden—Giggling?
Reba—Silent?	Vern—Without a Jane?
Davis—Moving Fast?

JOKES.

George Binch (in Senior study room):
"Harry, how does the blood run through the artillery?"

Mr Holmstead (to Merrill Clayson):
"Be careful with your use of the genders.
You know there are three: the masculine,
feminine, and canine."

And then Merrill went out and looked up Webster on the canine gender.

Two Freshman girls (after a spirited interview with Mr. Whitaker): "Just look at he a-ordering we around when us don't belong to he at all."

Binch: "Do you spell 'headlight' without a hyphen?"

Eli: "Put Roy in and then you won't need a headlight."

Why is Brazee like a fish?
Because he is strong for the Bate.

CALENDAR—Continued

- Oct. 18—Faculty members miss their hats and blame the Seniors for the terrible deed.
- Oct. 19—Faculty hides the Seniors' books. Mr. Whitaker gives a talk on a "pair of defenseless trousers."
- Oct. 20—Storm approaches as Seniors' books are still missing.
- Oct. 21—Students take around cards and receive D's mostly.
- Oct. 22—Books returned and a war averted. Hats also appear suddely.
- Oct. 25—Chemistry students discover a way to stink up the building.
- Oct. 26—Juniors have a candy pull.
- Oct. 27—Ina cuts the second inch off.
- Oct. 28—Leo spends the evening with Neva.
- Oct. 29—Jane and Clara give a "spook party."
- Nov. 1—Mr. Morgan discovers a certain bunch who are always unprepared in English.
- Nov. 2—Senior girls organize a literary society. Object—Refreshments.
- Nov. 3—Mate and Millie start worrying about their Xmas presents.
- Nov. 4—Howard Greene comes prepared to English B.
- Nov. 5—The Sophomore band renders a few Quaker selections in their program.
- Nov. 8—Wayne Wilcox arrives at school from the wilds of Idaho. Wayne looks it and his actions show it.
- Nov. 10—Davis Chipman plays with metallic Sodium and gets a good scare plus a burnt eye.
- Nov. 12—Classes organize their basketball teams.
- Nov. 15—Because Mr. C. W. W. calls Ida Booth handsome she drops French.
- Nov. 16—Class series start. Freshies wallop the Sophs. Tabby is much put out.
- Nov. 17—Ina cuts the third inch off.
- Nov. 18—Dena celebrates her 13th birthday.
- Nov. 19—Willie Gordon renders his famous "Ye call me chief" in devotional.
- Nov. 22—Seniors win from P. G. Juniors—36-16.
- Nov. 23—C. E. Young entertains the students with selections on his Victrola.
- Nov. 24—Clifford Chadwick gives Helen McCleery a rest for the day.
- Nov. 25—Ina cuts the fourth inch off and buys some high-tops to meet the remainder.
- Nov. 26—No school. Students attend a class in Physiology. Study the dissection of turkeys.

CALENDAR—Continued

- Nov. 29—Subs lick the Sophs in class series. Where's Tabby?
Nov. 30—Leo Hansen goes to see Neva again.
Dec. 1—A fraternity organization was organized to organize an organization. Called the I. D. K's.
Dec. 2—Cold day. 30 degrees below Missouri.
Dec. 3—Seniors give a delightful program in devotional. Mr. Meeker gives a salty talk.
Dec. 6—Clara Hunter breaks a window in the Junior room. Such vandalism.
Dec. 7—The Second Grade comes up and renders several beautiful selections in devotional.
Dec. 8—Class series end. Seniors are champs, never bowing to any. Sophs also champs, lost every game.
Dec. 9—Clara sells tickets at the Orient to help pay for the window.
Dec. 10—Introducing an old friend "Tip" the East Siders trimmed our basketball team.
Dec. 13—Happy has a battle with Miss Jacobsen for about five minutes of gym. time.
Dec. 14—Happy comes to school with a few, large scratches on his face.
Dec. 15—Bright, warm day. Threats of May walk.
Dec. 16—Getting ready for the holidays. Clara markets eggs to pay for window.
Dec. 17—Sophs give a nationality program. The Milos entertain. School dismissed for holidays.
Jan. 3—Huh! Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year. Janitor unlocks building for a Happy New Year. Yes?
Jan. 4—Yell practice. Tabby makes the old tin roof rattle.
Jan. 5—Some Eighth Grade girls snapped while looking out of their window.
Jan. 6—Just a plain ordinary cold day.
Jan. 7—Students boost for Lehi game and parade streets. Lehi at A. F. won by the skin of their teeth. "We put Lehi on the bum?"
Jan. 10—Clara exhibits her famous art collection in Seniors' room.
Jan. 11—Cold, so students hug the steam pipes.
Jan. 12—Mr. Jones selects his bunch for the Negro Minstrel.
Jan. 13—A. F. at P. G. Junk won.
Jan. 14—Clara has an auction sale of her art work to help pay for window.
Jan. 17—The Freshies were refreshed with a refreshing sleigh-ride.
Jan. 18—Sophs second the motion until the wee, small hours.

I
Ca
H
I
P
M
A N
S

CALENDAR—Continued

- Mr. Morgan assigns love poems to his English B class.
- Feb. 23—Clara works to pay for the window in the Junior room.
- Feb. 24—Harry McCleery gets into a heated argument with Mr. Morgan in English C.
- Feb. 25—Heber caught us on the hip and they took the cake.
- Feb. 28—Mr. Walker asserts his authority at 3:15 and makes the high school girls stay till near four o'clock.
- Feb. 29—Mr. Morgan assigns more love themes to English B students. Girls reveal their masculine characteristics. Leap Year dance in gym.
- Mar. 1—School almost closes as a result of the love poems handed in.
- Mar. 2—Several boys take a trip to Provo in the "side door Pullmans" but have to walk back.
- Mar. 3—Clara wears her new Spring bonnet for the first time. A. F. wallops Provo.
- Mar. 6—In Mechanic Arts, Merrill Clayson suggests taking the grains out of the waste wood to feed to his chickens.
- Mar. 7—Going—Going—GONE! Corners of the Apollo auctioned off for Junior Prom. Sophs show great business ability.
- Mar. 8—Nothing to record.
- Mar. 9—Ross Buckwalter caught holding Jane's hand.
- Mar. 10—Four boys take an open air trip to Salt Lake. Puzzle: Find their picture.
- Mar. 13—Clara makes a final settlement on the window. Good for Clara.
- Mar. 14—All working hard decorating Apollo for the Prom.
- Mar. 16—Seniors and Freshies fight over designs while decorating booths.
- Mar. 17—It happens what has never happened before. The grandest affair in the high school history—The Junior Prom.
- Mar. 20—Monday after the Friday before. None prepared.
- Mar. 21—Gene Halliday receives free pass from study room for winking at certain maidens.
- Mar. 22—Invisible ink discovered by lab. boys. Mr. Maughn is puzzled but pleased. Negro Minstrel pulled off in First Ward chapel.
- Mar. 23—Terrible blizzard. Snow several feet deep. School almost suspended. Storm forebodes evil events.

% — saidoo

CALENDAR—Continued

- Mar. 24—Debating teams defeat both Lehi and Pleasant Grove on Monroe Doctrine. Make Lehi think it black and P. G. think it is white.
- Mar. 27—Nothing doing. Blue Monday.
- Mar. 28—Ross Buckwalter mistakes Mr. Steele for a student and almost upsets his equilibrium.
- Mar. 29—Mr. Walker and Mr. Ashby collide while playing basket ball. Result—Mr. Ashby knocked out.
- Mar. 30—Alcohol missing in Lab. Looks suspicious for Chemistry students.
- Mar. 31—Several girls take the front door step for laughing in Miss Jasobsen's study period.
- Apr. 1—April Fool. Coon Minstrel goes to Alpine.
- Apr. 3—Henry Johnson has to take the front in the study room for throwing notes.
- Apr. 4—A Scotch blessing by Mr. Whitaker.
- Apr. 5—Happy makes Delbert say "Mud"—"three inches deep"—"three feet deep"—while wrestling in the gym.
- Apr. 6—Exams keep several home. Mr. Hales at last given the opportunity to deliver his maiden speech.
- Apr. 7—Willie Gordon caught looking thru the key-hole at the girls taking gym.
- Apr. 10—Brazee and Victor turn a mouse loose in the study room at noon. Record breaking dashes.
- Apr. 11—Those awful Physiology students cut up another terror for the sake of science.
- Apr. 12—Mr. Forbes gave the General History class an awful bawling out for digesting the literature in the "Literary Digest." Cards given out. Many afflicted with C-sickness.
- Apr. 13—Terrible ink fight between Hugh and Clara. Both covered with ink.
- Apr. 14—Big apples always come to the top. Miss Mathisen the last one to appear on the Maiden Speech series. Great fun in the gym. after the wayward pebbles are raked from the streets.
- Apr. 15—Wayne Wilcox spends two weeks in Heber on Saturday.
- Apr. 17—Great things coming to pass. Drinking water in the building.
- Apr. 18—Henry and Burn both say, "Be it ever so humble, there's no place like home." Canned opera food made while you wait by Jones in devotional.