

A letter Harvey Alexander Pace writes to his brother from Ft. Pace son of Harvey's oldest son William Harvey.

1 Harmony Jan 27 1906
to Mr William Pace Dear Grand son - Yours of the 23 received - certainly pleased to hear from you - and that all was prospering with you - and more than pleased to receive the clipping that you sent me - I have read the names all over - cannot help but think that they are some of our kin folks - you ask about Mr. Pace that is on the list - my father had no middle name - just William Pace - and his middle name was James Pace and heard Pap say one time that his father's name was James Pace but had no record of his birth - my father's father was born in 1823 of course

2

and moved to Tennessee in 1803 and was killed fighting for his country - and Jackson at Chalarles in 1824 - William Pace was born on the 3 of July 1800 your Grand Paw was born on the 12 of October 1833 - and your Paw was born on the 25 of Nov 1854 I have not got the date of your birth I hope that you remember success in hunting up the boys I will give you some of them a Genealogy of the Pace we are not interested in
